

ROLL Hand Grinding Machines

Dust free work

The sanding dust is sucked with the integrated vacuum attachment and the connection of an external industrial vacuum cleaner

Speed control

To adapt the optimal speed to several tools

Powerful motor

With dust protected electrical parts and thermic overload protection for a long service life, packed in a compact body

Intelligent vacuum system

Adjustable in the height and rotary cover for different height of discs and for more comfortable work along the wall

Reinforced gear

Reliable and robust with double bearing of the output shaft and optimized transmission components

Sanding frame with castors

Height adjustable castors for comfortable work and for adjustment of the working angle (Included with ROMO, wood sanding kit, sanding frame)

Hinged housing with magnet

Closed: for dust free work
Opened: for sanding up to the edge

Made in Germany

Quality product from Roll.

An allrounder

Universal hand grinding machine with a variety of accessories - to work on all subfloors and wood. Available in diameters of 125mm and 180mm.

High quality

High-quality components such as vacuum system made of metal and an industrial motor make the device reliable and robust.

